A Message from Freeholder Director
Gerald M. Thornton

It is a pleasure to once again update our citizens about the new and innovative programs being provided by Cape May County government. This directory is provided to help you navigate the various county offices, boards and commissions available to serve our residents. The directory is on our website and is updated in real time. It is also accessible in a mobile format and available on most hand held devices.

In an effort to keep pace in the changing world around us, we continue to move forward to improve county services. From security concerns at public buildings, and caring for our veterans, to addressing the needs of the less fortunate and increasing efficiency through technology, the Board of Chosen Freeholders strives to stay in the forefront and is ever mindful of the immediate and future needs of our residents.

On that note, we are moving forward on the County Central Dispatch at the Cape May County Airport. The partnership with Lower Township will result in a considerable cost savings for Cape May County, Lower Township, and all countywide municipalities, as they come on board. This will allow for the implementation of state-of-the-art communications technology and more importantly, improved response time for our First Responders.

The county is steadfast in our commitment to operate within its means and remains fiscally responsible to the taxpayers. This is most evident in the handling of county finances and our favorable Aa1 rating from Moody’s. Ratables continue to show growth which proves to be a positive indicator of our sound fiscal plan.

Revenue from tourism, our number one industry, reached a record high in 2015, resulting in new business growth and an increase in local jobs. We are making investments in economic development projects at the airport, in aquaculture and in the growing winery business, with the potential of new jobs coming to Cape May County, and expanding employment opportunities for our residents.

As a public servant, it is with great pride that I have the opportunity to represent you, and it’s an honor to serve as a Freeholder in Cape May County. The past six years as Freeholder Director, have been extremely rewarding, and I can say with sincerity that the hard work of my colleagues on the Board, the diligence of the Administrative staff and the commitment of the county work force have made Cape May County the envy of the State.

Official County Seal adopted in 1927

The History:
County records indicate that the first mention of the “County seal” was on February 6, 1838, when the Board of Freeholders asked Jeremiah Leaming to make a seal for the County. There is no description of what type of seal it was or what it looked like. A County seal was not mentioned again in records until May 7, 1872, when the Director of the Board of Freeholders, Dr. Alexander Young, suggested that a new County seal be made as the old one was poorly made and should be destroyed. There was no description given of the appearance of this seal either.

On March 16, 1927, Freeholder Director Joseph G. Champion presented a design for an official County seal to the Board of Freeholders. The design had been made by architects Edwards and Green of Philadelphia. Champion wished to have the design installed in the floor of the new court house building on Main Street in Cape May Court House. The design was accepted and on May 1, 1927, this design became the official seal of Cape May County.

The Symbolism:
The boat is believed to represent the Half Moon, the ship of Henry Hudson, who “discovered” the cape and claimed it for the Dutch. The compass arrow indicates the position of the County. The symbols around the edge represent fish or whales which, along with the anchor, represent the County’s maritime commerce. The bee hive on the right is thought to represent County industry. The stack of books on the left represents learning or education. The cornucopia between the fish represents the agricultural bounty of the County. The last symbol at the bottom of the seal is a mystery symbol. The meaning of this symbol is unclear.
